WHAT IS IT THE CPA?

The Citizens Police Academy is designed to give citizens an overview of the Lawton Police Department. It is also designed to create two-way communication between citizens and officers. This course includes information on operations, community issues, videos and hands-on training to help citizens understand how they can help to make our community safer. The Citizens Police Academy is a 12-week block of instruction held in an interactive classroom setting. Classes will consist of a 3 hour sessions held every Thursday.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the Citizens Police Academy is to increase the understanding of law enforcement by our citizens through education and interaction with members of the Lawton Police Department. The academy gives our citizens the opportunity to learn first hand, in an educational and non-threatening setting, how the police department deals with issues facing teenagers today.
